"A small city within the city": About the Schultheiss Quartier.

The multifunctional Schultheiss Quartier center, which opened in August 2018 on the former site of the historic Schultheiss brewery in the Moabit district of Berlin-Mitte, comprises around 20,000 m² of retail space, 25,000 m² of office space, 8,500 m² of hotel space, a versatile food court, a 2,400 m² fitness center and 400 parking spaces.

Just two kilometers from Berlin Central Station, the center is optimally connected to public transport by numerous bus, streetcar and subway lines (subway line U9: Turmstraße station / streetcar line M10 / bus lines: M27, 101, 123, 187, 245). In particular, the completion of the new streetcar line directly to the main station in 2023 could further increase the popularity of the Schultheiss Quartier among residents of the neighborhood and visitors, with up to 20,000 visitors per day.

"In the heart of Berlin-Mitte, the Schultheiss Quartier combines all facets of urban life such as working, shopping, accommodation and entertainment in a unique ambience," explains Harald Gerome Huth, owner and Managing Director of HGHI Holding GmbH. The architect responsible, Max Dudler, also describes the Schultheiss Quartier as "a small city within the city".
