Press Release

New head of construction department at HGHI

Berlin, February 21st, 2017. Dirk Schubert is the new head of HGHI Baumanagement GmbH, a subsidiary of HGHI Holding GmbH.

About HGHI Baumanagement GmbH

HGHI Baumanagement GmbH is responsible for the implementation of the complete construction and planning activities of HGHI Holding GmbH. Among others, the subsidiary handles the realization of large-scale projects in Berlin, as for example the building of the Schultheiss Quartier and the refurbishment of the pedestrian zone Gorkistr. in Tegel. The annually completed construction volume adds up to more than 100 million Euro. As well as the HGHI Holding GmbH, the HGHI Baumanagement GmbH is expanding. The construction team of 25 employees will therefore continue to grow.

The new head of HGHI Baumanagement GmbH, Mr Schubert has more than 27 years of professional experience in the construction industry, therefrom 23 years at Bilfinger SE on general contractor side. There, Mr Schubert acted as head in various positions and was responsible for the conduct, the reconstruction as well as the refurbishment and restructuring of operative entities. Moreover, he has gained a wide diversity of experience in the implementation of turnkey projects.

Recently, Mr Schubert acted as spokesman of the executive office of Projekt- und Baumanagementgesellschaft mbH based in Kassel.
