Roofing Ceremony of the Schultheiss Quartier in Berlin-Mitte on the 13th of September 2017

Berlin, September 14th 2017. The Schultheiss Quartier celebrated its roofing ceremony on September 13th 2017.

With the completion of the shell construction, the Schultheiss Quartier in Berlin-Mitte celebrated its roofing ceremony on September 13th. At this festivity the following were present: Stephan von Dassel (borough mayor of Berlin-Mitte district), Nils Busch-Petersen (chief executive of trade association Berlin-Brandenburg), Regula Lüscher (undersecretary of state/construction director of Berlin Senate) and the renowned architecture office of Max Dudler. On the site of the former Schultheiss brewery, 30,000 sqm were build for retail area, 15,000 sqm for office space and 8,500 sqm for a Menger Hotel. With its harmonic combination of traditional brick stone facade together with modern architectonic components, the Schultheiss Quartier obtains a unique feature, compared to other shopping destinations in Berlin. The newly emerging Lifestyle-Quarter will be an attraction for the district and the whole city.
