New head quarter: HGHI Holding GmbH moved into the historical Mendelssohn-Palais in Berlin-Mitte

Berlin, September 27th, 2017. The impressive Mendelssohn-Palais is the new Headquarter of the HGHI Holding GmbH.

On September 16th, 2017 the HGHI Holding GmbH, investor and project developer of numerous construction projects in Berlin, moved its head quarter from Leipziger Platz 16, 10117 Berlin-Mitte into the historical Mendelssohn-Palais, Jägerstraße 49/50, 10117 Berlin-Mitte. In April 2017 the HGHI Holding GmbH, owner managed by investor H. G. Huth, purchased the representative object.

The listed and largely in its original condition preserved building near the Gendarmenmarkt, built in neoclassical style between 1891 and 1893 according to the plans of the architects Schmieden and Speer for the banking house Mendelssohn & Co., convinces by its traditional character, magnificent fittings and impressive artworks. Besides numerous historical rooms the two-storied Mendelssohn-Palais has a variety of modern offices. On the 1,400 sqm terrain the total floor area amounts to 5,200 sqm.

Next to the incomparable and unique charme of the historical building, the Mendelssohn-Palais with its high-quality substance and an interaction between tradition and modernity is the perfect room for an inspiring working atmosphere.
